3. All the day, the sun that lends me shine, By frowns do cause me pine, and feeds me with delay.
 Her smiles, my springs, that makes, my joys to grow, her frowns the winters of my woe.

4. All the night, my sleeps are full of dreams, My eyes are full of stremas, my heart takes no delight.
 To see, the fruits, and joys, that some, do find, and mark the storms are me assigned.

5. Out alas, my faith is ever true. Yet will she never rue, nor yield me any grace.
 Her eyes, of fire, her heart, of flint, is made, whom tears nor truth may ons invade.
